

JATINDER SHARMA

“A man is but the product of his thoughts. What he thinks, he becomes.” - Gandhi

As a fourth year Bachelor of Administrative Studies, specialized honors in Marketing major, Jatinder is looking forward to his upcoming graduation in April of 2012. While he has thoroughly enjoyed his time at York University, he is eager to apply what he has learned over the years in a professional corporate setting.

Jatinder is a quick learner who thinks outside the box and brings his positive attitude to all his endeavors. He is a firm believer in trying new things and expanding his horizons. Jatinder views each success and failure as a learning experience; he believes that there is always room for growth and improvement.

Both in the classroom and at work, Jatinder has been on the frontline, pushing forward and bringing about positive change. His open-mindedness and appreciation for knowledge have helped him achieve his goals. His advice to others is to open your mind and treat every situation as a learning experience.

What are your future ambitions?

After graduation, Jatinder wishes to work for one of the Fortune 500 companies. He feels that corporate experience will provide him with a different perspective than the public sector experience he has obtained over the years. His post graduation aspirations are to obtain his MBA designation from the prestigious Schulich School of Business.

Person who you look up to or that inspires you?

Jatinder's parents are his main source of inspiration. He looks up to them on several fronts – they have taught him the meaning of integrity, determination, and have been role models in showing the importance of togetherness. In addition to being supportive and encouraging him during his studies, they have always shown him the importance of perseverance in achieving one's career and life goals.

Add Jatinder on
Linked In and Twitter:

